

SKI DAY: 24-01-2013

- ◆ Happy birthday again Xavier and Simon!
- ◆ We are all very sorry for the buttocks of Giovanni...
- ◆ Many thanks Simon, Benoit and Alexey for the drinks and Benoit for the nice organization and weather!

Xavier decided to make a big snowboard jump for his birthday... congratulations...
(see next 3 slides)

Xavier
